A POETICAL ESSAY

UPON

BAPTISM.*

---

Pedobaptist. When God made man a living soul
To people earth from pole to pole,
He made a covenant with the whole :
Infants unborn were in the roll,
Therefore they were not Baptists..

Baptist. When led by Satan to rebel, (a)
Man from his state of glory fell,
And the whole race discovering hell,
Ere born again, how vain to tell, (b)
That all were Pedobaptists !

P. When wickedness rose up its crest,
And evil ones became a pest,
Almighty wrath broke up the nest,
And infants perish'd with the rest.
What think ye of it Baptists ?

---

* All the verses marked P. in the following Poetical Essay upon Baptism, were written by a Pedobaptist, and styled, "THE BAPTIST MONITOR," in answer to which, the verses marked B. were written.

a Gen. iii. 4. b Gen. iii. 10; Deut. xxvii. 26; John iii. 3.

P. Again the world must peopled be,
 So with the great divine decree.
 The blessing comes both full and free,
 And infants share with you and me.
 Old Noah was no Baptist.

B. When men by Satan were deceived,
 Till they the Holy Spirit grieved, (a)
 Eight adults on God's word believed,
 And were from sudden death reprieved.
 Pray were they Pedobaptists?

B. Baptism's figure must be tried, (b)
 And heaven's windows opening wide,
 The broken fountains rolled a tide, (c)
 Above, beneath, round every side
 Of those eight faithful Baptists.

B. Baptism rightly understood,
 The answer of a conscience good, (b)
 Unconscious babes cannot include :
 Force it on such we never should.
 So thinks each Christian Baptist.

P. Next Abraham comes into view ;
 With covenants he had much to do :
 His ways were faithful, just and true,
 And infants' claims were nothing new.
 Mark well the word ye Baptists.

P. That faithful, great, and good old man
 Well understood the gospel plan :
 The promise in broad numbers ran,
 To infant seed—deny who can.
 Give ear ye simple Baptists.

P. The nation's father is his name
 No other man has such a claim,
 And does it not remain the same ?
 If infants fail, who are to blame ?
 It seems to be the Baptists.

- P.* The promise runs through ages all,
For Jesus has the power to call,
Until he burns this earthly ball,
And gathers home both great and small.
Mind well your steps ye Baptists.
- B.* Behold love's wondrous power displayed ! (a)
With Christ the better covenant made, (b)
In which believers, Christ's true seed,
Were from the Law's sad curses freed (c)
By Christ the blessed Baptist.
- B.* If ye are Christ's, ye're Abraham's seed, (d)
And such a remnant shall be freed : (e)
But God spared not the natural breed, (f)
Because by nature man's a weed !
What think'st thou Pedobaptist ? (g)
- B.* Are the believers' natural seed
All members of Christ's Church ? Indeed ! (h)
Is this the Pedobaptist creed
By which church membership they plead ?
Then farewell Pedobaptist.
- B.* While you the natural branches take, (i)
Not fitly framed a house to make, (k)
We'll use the ones, for Jesus' sake, (l)
That have been brought life to partake ; (m)
Believing ere they're baptised. (n)
- B.* My friend, behold an olive wild (o)
Grafted in by faith, and Abrah'm's child
A member of the Devil styled, (p)
To make us humble, meek and mild. (q)
Think on this Pedobaptist.
- B.* Faith has a firm foundation stone (r)
The just shall live by faith alone ; (s)

a 1 John iii. 1, 2. b Heb. viii. 6. c Gal. iii. 13. d Gal. iii. 29.
e Rom. ix. 27. f Rom. x. 21. g Mat. xiii. 29, 38. h Rom. ix. 7, 8.

r Gal. iii. 22. s Heb. x. 38.

Nor will the fathers do the son, (a)
 Or bring him to the great Three One. (b)
 Think on this Pedobaptist.

B. And cease your children to deceive, (c)
 Nor teach them longer to believe, (d)
 That by your faith they do receive, (e)
 Birth in Christ's church, or his reprieve. (f)
 'Tis wrong O Pedobaptist.

B. The Saviour, with the Apostle cries, (g)
 That 'tis in vain with blinded eyes, (h)
 To think by parentage to rise,
 Till freed they can't obtain the prize. (i)
 Do read this Pedobaptist.

P. The Baptist John with Jewish rite
 Proclaimed the Incarnate Light;
 The God of glory came to sight,
 And infants praised the Lord of might.
 That will not screen you Baptists.

P. While John the servant is long dead,
 The Lord of glory hath well sped;
 His enemies he down will tread,
 And infants claim him as their Head,
 Say what ye may ye Baptists.

B. All whom the Saviour dear hath bought, (k)
 Will by his spirit here be sought, (l)
 And in the gospel doctrine taught, (m)
 Till to believe in him they're brought: (n)
 Such may, we know, be baptized. (o)

B. To turn men's hearts the Lord to praise, (p)
 To preach repentance and baptize, (q)
 According to the Saviour's ways, (r)
 John came. Whoever this denies, (s)
 Must be a Pedobaptist.

a Ezek. xiv. 14. b Ezek. xviii. 4, 5, 10, 13. c Gal. vi. 12, 13. d Gal. v. 2, 3. e Mat. iii. 9. f Gal. v. 3, 5. g John iii. 3. h Rom. ix. 32. i John viii. 33, 36. k John vi. 37. l John xvii. 2, 3, 20. m John vi. 45. n Acts xiii. 48. o Acts viii. 12, 37. p Luke i. 16. q John i. 33. r Luke i. 76. s Luke iii. 3.

- B.* The law and Prophets were till John : (d)
 In him the Saviour's gospel shone, (b)
 While faithfully he warned each one, (c)
 And multitudes came pressing on (d)
 Pray were they Pedobaptists?
- B.* From God, the Baptist John was sent, (a)
 To break false members he was bent (f)
 He cried to Jewish ones—"repent, (g)
 And be baptized," with full intent,
 To make straight paths for Baptists.
- B.* John did this glorious work begin, (h)
 The Lambs of God a bride to win
 And preached till many turned from sin ; (i)
 Then Jordan's flood he dipped them in, (k)
 Because he was a Baptist.
- B.* Think not within yourselves, he cries,
 That Abraham's faith gains you the prize,
 For God out of these stones can raise
 A holy seed to give him praise. (l)
 Amen, cries every Baptist.
- B.* Lawyers who found their dead works wrook'd,
 And Pharisees a zealous sect,
 God's holy counsel did reject,
 And John's baptism quite neglect, (m)
 Like other Pedobaptists.
- B.* But forth the heavenly stranger came, (n)
 (Great is his power and great his fame) (o)
 The "Wonderful" shall be his name, (p)
 Who bore the cross, despised the shame (q)
 Of baptism by immersion. (r)
- B.* Then coming out of Jordan's flood, (s)
 For us to shed his precious blood, (t)

a Luke xvi. 16. b Mark i. 1. John v. 35. c Luke iii. 8, 11, 13, 18.

 i. 9, 10. s Mark i. 10. t Mat. xxvi. 28.

(Thus fulfilling what was good,) (a)
 Despised and wet, the Saviour stood, (b)
 A pattern to the Baptists. (c)

B. But coming quickly from above,
 In shape and likeness of a dove, (d)
 The holy spirit John saw move, (e)
 Which with a voice of heavenly love
 Did own the Blessed Baptist. (f)

B. Now heavenly wisdom he did teach, (g)
 And glorious gospel sermons preach, (h)
 Which did the hearts of many reach: (i)
 Never had man such glorious speech. (k)
 Do read it Pedobaptist.

B. Your holy water O, how vain! (l)
 Your sprinkling cannot wash sin's stain,
 Except a man be born again,
 A sight of Heaven he can't obtain. (m)
 Do read this Pedobaptist.

B. If you heaven's kingdom wish to see,
 Know that you must converted be, (n)
 And from sin's galling chain set free, (o)
 (Lusts of the eye and flesh to flee,) (p)
 And then you may be baptized. (q)

P. Our Lord, when on the earth he stood,
 Confirmed the blessing, made it good.
 The simple ones in sullen mood
 strove to keep back the infant brood—
 Much like the modern Baptists.

B. They who to Jesus infants brought,
 Say was it sprinkling that they sought?
 Or was it sprinkling that they got?
 'Twas to be prayed for. Was it not? (r)
 What says the Pedobaptist?

a Mat. iii. 15. b Isa. liii. 3. c Mat. x. 38. d Mat. iii. 16. e John
 i. 32. f Mat. iii. 17. g John xii. 49. h Isa. lxi. 1, 2, 3. i John x. 42.

 John iii. 5. p 1 John ii. 16. q Acts xxii. 16. r Mat. xix. 13.

- B.* Baptism's rite was then in use, (a)
 Though Christ of it made no abuse, (b)
 He prayed for all whom he would choose, (c)
 And was offended at all those Who seemed to think he should not.
- B.* 'Tis true, Christ sets some children free, (d)
 And such in Heaven will happy be;
 But does he bid an infant flee,
 Or carried be by you or me,
 To get offence by baptism? (e)
- B.* And when thus forced how can they taste?
 Strong meat for babes is only waste, (f)
 While wiser they prefer the breast.
 Go teach them first, you'll find it best, (g)
 For little Pedobaptists.
- B.* The symbol used not understood,
 Of washing in Christ's precious blood, (h)
 Doth much offend the infant brood.
 How can it do them any good?
 Pray tell us Pedobaptist.
- P.* The Holy Spirit did descend,
 To spread the word to the world's end,
 The stubborn will of man to bend,
 And infants' causes to defend Against unruly Baptists.
- P.* When Peter preached the word of life
 To win the Lamb a loving wife,
 About the promise made no strife.
 Infants felt not the pruning knife.
 How much unlike the Baptists!
- P.* Peter the ancient promise knew,
 And still he kept the same in view.
 Miraculous gifts were for a few:
 Infants with them had nought to do.
 Look well and see ye Baptists.

a John iv. 1. b John iii. 22, 23. c John xvii. 9, 20. d 1 Kings xiv. 12, 13. e Mark xvi. 15, 16. f 1 Cor. iii. 2. g Mat. xxviii. 19. h Rev. i. 5.

- B.* The gospel promise is to all
That will believe, says worthy Paul : (a)
And Peter says to great and small—
As many as the Lord shall call. (b)
Do read it Pedobaptist.
- B.* Gospel hearers are apprised,
If they'll repent and be baptized,
They'll get the Holy Ghost, so prized.
The call* to infants, who surmised, (c)
Except the Pedobaptists?
- P.* The promise being forward brought,
The Spirit in the people wrought—
Whole families the church has got,
Were there infants? Were there not?
What say contracted Baptists?
- B.* Baptists, you know, have always owned, (d)
True penitents wherever found,
That heard salvation's joyful sound, (e)
Till faith with each one did abound,
And such they always baptized.
- B.* By gospel grace which christians prized, (f)
Those households all were aggrandized ;
They all believed and were baptized. (g)
That such were infants, who surmised,
Except the Pedobaptist?
- P.* All ye that are of human kind,
What Joel spoke, pray call to mind,
For children must a ransom find,
And sucklings not be left behind.
God claims them—not the Baptists.
- B.* All parents of th' Arminian kind,
That can a drop of water find,

* "Repent and be baptized every one of you."

a Gal. iii. 22. b Acts ii. 39. c Acts ii. 38. d Acts xvi. 40 e Acts x.
24, 44, 46. f Acts x. 24, 44, 48. g Acts xvi. 32, 33, 34, xviii. 8.

Leave not a sucking child behind,
But to the law then strictly bind, (a)
And make them Pedobaptists.

P. When Paul was preaching far and near
The gospel doctrine fair and clear,
He held the parent's faith most dear,
The children holy, without fear
Of arguments from Baptists.

B. Paul held the unbeliever too,
As holy as the infant crew: (b)
Then should not sprinkling be his due,
That makes nature's children new
As held by Pedobaptists? (c)

B. Paul with the Saviour hath agreed
That faithful Abrah'm's natural breed, (d)
And Gentiles too, are Satan's seed (e)
Till they're from sin's sad bondage freed. (f)
Do read this Pedobaptist.

B. Lest you again should ask or say,
"Are we not better far than they? (g)
Our children all in Zion's way?
Are others born in Christ's church? Pray
Are not the Pedobaptists?" (h)

B. But hear what the Apostle cries:
You better! not in any wise, (i)
In sin all born of woman lies. (k)
Those who believe in Christ may rise,
And be in water baptized. (l)

B. A question here perhaps may suit,
When trees with life do bud and shoot,
By virtue from old Jesse's root,
Or when the good tree bears good fruit,
Is it young Pedobaptists?

- P.* Let infant martyrs praise and sing
 The glories of th' Eternal King :
 From womb and breast he did them bring.
 This is no vain or trifling thing ;
 Do ponder on it Baptists.
- B.* All the redeemed will gladly sing
 The praises of th' Eternal King,
 Who infants to his arms can bring,
 Without such new invented thing.
 As sprinkling them with water.
- P.* The Lamb of God has lambs on earth,
 Lambs in practice, lambs by birth :
 His lambs will praise with holy mirth,
 Though Satan strive to make a dearth
 Of such among the Baptists.
- B.* Satan has also goats on earth, (a)
 Goats in practice, goats by birth, (b)
 They'll take God's name in vain for mirth :
 Of such does sprinkling make a dearth
 Among the Pedobaptists?
- P.* When Israelites were all baptized,
 The cloud hung o'er the sea well poised,
 And Pharaoh's chariots were capsized :
 Immersion never was surmised
 By any but the Baptists.
- B.* To Israel's sacraments you flee
 Where Pharaoh like, you can't them see (c)
 When in the cloud baptized they be (d)
 And going in and out of sea,
 A figure of true baptism.
- P.* In Moses' time at God's command,
 The law was published in the land :
 Baptism flowed from his right hand,
 And sprinkling was the law demand.
 Shut not your eyes ye Baptists.

---

a John iii. 8: viii. 44. b Eph. ii. 3. c Exod. xvi. 20. d 1 Cor. x. 1, 2.

- P. Then holy priest did mend the matter,
Among the people blessings scatter,
Sometimes with blood, sometimes with water,
And all without such idle clatter
As may be heard from Baptists.
- B. Those divers washing had a flaw ; (a)
In Jesus' yoke you will not draw,
But build with stubble hay and straw, (b)
And prove your sprinkling from the law. (c)
Which Jesus Christ abolish'd. (d)
- B. Believers from the law are freed, (e)
They learned from Christ another creed,
When he came forth for man to bleed,
And set a pattern to his seed
Despised by Pedobaptists.
- B. But Antichrist to make things better,
For gospel published idle clatter, (g)
Made clean the outside of the platter,
By sprinkling babes with holy water,
Like other Pedobaptists.
- P. The prophet latter days could see,
When Jews and Gentiles joined would be
The gospel spread from sea to sea,
And sprinkled nations bow the knee.
Dare you deny it Baptists ?
- B. The knees will bow in every place
Where God doth sprinkle hearts with grace :
But when man sprinkles but the face,
How can it help the guilty race
Of any Pedobaptist ?
- P. The smallest promise from the Lord,
More precious far than golden cord
Does come through Christ as his reward ;
And sprinkling promised in his word.
Don't slight the text ye Baptists.

a Heb. viii. 7: ix. 10, 19. b 1 Cor. iii. 12. c Gal. iv. 21. d Eph. ii. 15.
e Col. ii. 14. f Gal. v. 5. g Tradition.

- P.* The form was never changed I wot,
If so, the Bible says it not ;
But dupes another way have got.
O may it never be my lot,
To be a dipping Baptist.
- B.* Christ's Church on earth they cannot see, (a)
Who to the legal yoke do flee. (b)
They cannot wait till faith comes free, (c)
But think their children saved can be,
By sprinkling them with water.
- B.* The ceremonial law was changed, (d)
By him who in death's shades was plunged, (e)
Who this denies must be deranged,
Or from the gospel truths estranged
As far as Pedobaptist.
- B.* Christ set a pattern—did he not ?
But "dupes" soon from the Baptists got,
And Moses for their leader sought.
Bless'd be the friend that cast my lot
Among the humble Baptists.
- P.* Immersion has no promise given
By the great Lord of earth and heaven ;
This lump of Anabaptist leaven,
To thousands more than six or seven
Has been proclaimed by Baptists.
- B.* To thousands three that ceased to stay,
This was proclaimed in one day : (f)
They baptized were the Saviour's way,
Which John prepared the Scriptures say. (g)
What says the Pedobaptist ?
- P.* When Jesus Christ rose from the grave
A sinful world to hold and save,
Then first this sacrament he gave :
The Triune baptism he would have.
Is it not so, say Baptists ?

<sup>a</sup> Rom. xi. 8. <sup>b</sup> Rom. ix. 32. <sup>c</sup> Gal. iii. 25. <sup>d</sup> Col. ii. 14. <sup>e</sup> Luke
xii. 50. <sup>f</sup> Luke ii. 41. <sup>g</sup> Luke i. 76.

- B.* By Christ, and servants in his stead (a)
 Disciples were baptized and made, (b)
 Before he died. He broke the bread,
 And poured the wine before he bled. (c)
 What say the Pedobaptists?
- B.* By John, Christ's way prepared they saw,
 In which they quickly found a flaw,
 Condemned it, for being under law,
 Yet did from Moses sprinkling draw,
 And railed against the Baptists.
- P.* This holy rite now let us view,
 God's children take it old and new,
 Are crucified and buried too,
 And dead with Christ, if Paul be true,
 Cross and sheet wanting, Baptists.
- B.* The christian's baptism let us view,
 When dead to sin they're buried too, (d)
 And raised to walk with Christ anew;
 But show us how this figure true
 Is found in infant sprinkling.
- P.* The Baptist brood with errors rough,
 At Bible truths may bark and puff,
 With Munster slime, and Newlight stuff
 But judgment comes, and that—enough.
 Be on your guard ye Baptists.
- P.* The blood of bulls, of goats or rams,
 Will sooner furnish saints with palms,
 Than errors black, or fits or qualms,
 With Jesuit-logic, or Watts's psalms
 Can clear up truths for Baptists.
- B.* If it be justice to retort,
 May I not ask, to stop you short,
 Upon the forehead of what sort
 Is "MORHER or HARLOTS" set by art?
 Pray tell us Pedobaptist.

a John iv. 1. b John iii. 22. c Mat. xxvi. 26, 27, 28. d Rom. vi. 4.

- B.* When angels pour wrath's vials seven, (a)
Will thousands sprinkled, not be driven
Where Watts's hymns, and songs of heaven
Will ne'er be sung, or new names given?
What think'st thou Pedebaptist?
- B.* When unlike Watts a writer rough
Must have recourse to "bark and puff,"
With "Munster alms, and Newlight stuff,"
'Tis time to quit, that is enough,
To show what spirit leads him.
- P.* Say O my soul how canst thou stay,
And see thy friends thus led astray,
To Satan's errors made a prey.
O let me hasten far away,
And bid farewell to Baptists.
- B.* Take from his eye the beam I pray,
Restore him, for he is astray;
Thou let him hasten far away,
To realms of everlasting day,
To sing God's praise with Baptists.
